STAFFORD ESTATE PLANNING ATTORNEY ATTENDS EXCLUSIVE CONFERENCE AND CELEBRATES LEGAL MILESTONE

Stafford, Virginia — Renowned Stafford estate planning and elder law attorney, Gaby Coronado, attended one of the nation’s premier legal education conferences celebrated in Las Vegas, NV from April 25 through April 29. The American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys hosted their 25th annual Spring Summit which included over 100 estate planning law firms from around the country.

The American Academy is committed to helping its Member attorneys innovate the way they practice law. The conference focused on attorneys enhancing relationships within their communities, cutting-edge legal education, practice management and leadership training. “The 25th Anniversary was not only the celebration of the American Academy, but also a celebration of the 25 years of transforming Estate Planning law firms. We wanted to focus this event on showing our members how they are transforming their clients’ lives and how they can continue to do so.” said Sanford M. Fisch, CEO and co-founder of the American Academy.

The Summit kicked off on Thursday with a keynote address focusing on changing one’s mindset from Managing Partner of the Arbinger Institute, James Ferrell. Gaby Coronado also received legal training on new legal strategies and updates in estate planning during the sessions: Planning for Special Needs Persons, Asset Protection, The New Tax Law: What You Need to Know, and The Basics of Basis. The highlight of the event was the Academy’s 25th Anniversary Gala Reception, where they celebrated a milestone, not only for the Academy, but for the estate planning landscape nationwide.

Gaby Coronado revealed “This event helped us rediscover our purpose in helping families create an estate plan that will secure their assets and legacy for future generations. The American Academy and these conferences provide us with the education, systems, and resources that ensure we give our clients the best legal help available, while building a continuous, positive, relationship with our clients”

The American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys began in 1993 with a mission to help its members transform the way they practice law. The Academy’s focus is to provide members with the support they need to provide cutting-edge legal solutions while making the estate planning process a relaxed, enjoyable, and positive experience for their clients.

Coronado Law Office, PLLC. devotes its practice to estate planning and elder law and has been a member of the American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys since 2016. Coronado Law Office is one of only four firms in Virginia to be admitted to Academy membership. The firm has helped many clients meet their estate planning goals and pass on meaningful legacies to their loved ones.
